

I support the New Jersey do not call list and strongly object to the FCC overturning NJ's ability to enforce the terms of the list. As a public agency, the FCC should be accountable to the will of the people, not telemarketing special interest groups. Thanks You.